Ameresco Captures Consumer Champion Award at TELCA 2019 Awards

Energy efficiency and renewable energy services leader recognized for superior client service ability to achieve desired outcomes

FRAMINGHAM, MASS. and LONDON, U.K. – September 18, 2019 – Ameresco, Inc. (NYSE:AMRC), a leading energy efficiency and renewable energy company, today announced that it received the Consumer Champion Award at The Energy Live Consultancy Awards (TELCA) 2019. The awards ceremony, organized by Energy Live News and attended by leading companies in the U.K.'s energy sector, took place at the Institution of Engineering and Technology.

Each year, the TELCA Awards recognize third-party intermediaries and brokers in a range of categories representing the best of the U.K.'s energy industry.

“No one organization has the same energy demands or requirements as the other, so we always begin a new engagement with a careful assessment of the customer's specific challenges and opportunities” said Kath Chapman, Director of Operations at Ameresco. “That way, we're able to tailor our services to meet their needs in a completely customized way. We're very proud to be recognized for our commitment to putting customers first.”

This year's annual TELCA Awards featured categories such as Best Customer Service, Consultancy of the Year, and Industry Expert. The rigorous judging process for the awards included video interviews and customer feedback.
